

ISPFMRA Scholarship Program for Community College Transfer Students

The Illinois Society of Professional Farm Managers and Rural Appraisers is an organization of professional men and women engaged in the management of farms and the appraisal of rural property. The Society was formed in 1928, and its members manage the production and marketing of nearly 10 percent of the corn and soybean produced in Illinois. www.ispfmra.org

You should consider applying for this scholarship if you:

- Are interested in a career in farm management, rural appraisal, and/or rural consulting.
- Want a rewarding career with competitive pay and abundant employment opportunities.
- Are graduating from a community college in Illinois and are transferring to one of the four in-state agriculture universities (Illinois State, Southern Illinois, University of Illinois, or Western Illinois) to pursue a bachelor of science degree in agriculture, or to Illinois College to pursue a bachelor of arts degree in business administration with a concentration in agribusiness.

Scholarship recipients will receive:

- Career development and networking opportunities: Interact with industry professionals, build your resume, and make valuable contacts as you prepare for your future.
- A $1,000 scholarship paid directly to your university to help defray the cost of your junior year.
- On-the-job experience: Recipients spend a day with an ISPFMRA-member industry professional for a structured job shadow opportunity.
- Hotel accommodations and registration for the 1.5-day ISPFMRA Annual Summer Tour, where scholarship recipients will be recognized during a special evening program.
- The opportunity to apply for a $500 renewable scholarship for your senior year.

Eligibility requirements:

- Permanent Illinois resident and a full-time sophomore at an accredited community college in Illinois.
- Transferring to Illinois State, Southern Illinois, University of Illinois, or Western Illinois to pursue a bachelor of science degree in agriculture, or to Illinois College to pursue a bachelor of arts degree in agribusiness.
- Interest in a career in farm management, rural appraisal, and/or rural consulting.
- Submission of a transcript, application, and one letter of endorsement from a community college advisor or instructor, employer, etc.
- Commitment to:
 - Complete a one-day job shadow experience with an ISPFMRA-member industry professional prior to the start of the Fall 2021 semester (may be virtual depending on local restrictions).
 - Complete a job shadow program evaluation report.
 - Attend the 2021 ISPFMRA Summer Tour if permitted by local conditions.

Applications must be postmarked by March 1, 2021.
